Blocked Culvert Has Virtually Cut Off Railroad Avenue For Traffic

A condition which has virtually made Railroad avenue impassable between School street and 88th street was brought to the attention of THE RECORD this week.

The water, as shown in the picture above, is from two to three feet deep in some places.

Source of the water is a culvert which has been blocked up by sand and mud. Unable to flow through the pipe the water has risen and covered a section of Railroad avenue. And during a heavy rain the water runs off over 88th street just to the south.

City officials note this condition will be corrected when the rains abate. They assert the culvert pipe has been cleaned several times, but continued rain has promptly blocked it.

Meanwhile, at least during a heavy rain, it is impossible to use this section of Railroad avenue.

Red Cross Drive Is Getting Good Start

Most Daly City merchants have contributed to the current Red Cross drive, according to Joe Lewkowitz, business district chairman.

"If you pass windows of stores in Daly City," Lewkowitz reported, "you will see many 100 per cent stickers."

The chairman says that within another week the pedestrian should be able to walk from the county line to the high school and see all merchants with 100 per cent stickers.

Reports from residential areas also are coming in Lewkowitz said, and the city is well on its way toward the quota of $2,900. The drive will continue through March.

Second Test Air-Raid Alert Set For April 3

Coordinator To Quit If Not Successful

Daly City will participate in a second all county wide test air-raid alert April 3, Dan Andersen, city administrator, announced today.

Date for the raid, which follows the February 20 "snafu" alert, was set at the regular meeting of the joint city-county civil defense planning board last Thursday. Should this attempt prove a failure, Capt. C. J. Ballreich, civilian defense coordinator for the county, will resign.

The alert will be sounded here at 10:15 a.m. with the all clear set for 15 minutes later. It will be primarily to test the county-wide alarm system and to determine the effectiveness of local warnings.

Residents will not be asked to take any active participation in the alert, although school children are expected to carry out an air drill.

It has already been ascertained that a better alarm system is needed for Westlake. The question now, regardless of how many test alerts, is where is the money coming from for an expanded alarm system.

Andersen told THE RECORD that in the 1952-53 city budget the city is expected to allot "about $1,000" for civilian defense. The state, in turn, is slated to come up with a larger matching fund.

Difficultly "We hope this will be enough to handle the situation," Andersen said, "but much depends on the state funds."

The principal difficulty with the county civilian defense program was sounded by Dr. Harold D. Choche, public health and welfare director, when he reported efforts to recruit emergency personnel have been thwarted by public apathy and official red tape.

"With confusion at the top and apathy at the bottom it is a wonder we get anything done," Dr. Choche said.

POLICE REPORT TELLS COMPLETE STORY WELL

Firemen were called Monday evening to the home of Mrs. Victor Gotelli, 211 Los Banos, to extinguish a small fire in a stove. The cryptic police report on the subject could hardly be improved on by any writer. "Mrs. Gotelli fell asleep while roast in oven. Roast caught fire. Roast well done."

Businessman To Bring Suit

A Daly City businessman, who claims to have been victimized by burglars four times recently, has threatened to bring a damage suit against the city for inadequate police protection.

Frank Mortorana, owner of Mortorana Brothers and Aero Motors, told THE RECORD he is now in conference with his attorney to determine the legal ramifications of the question.

"I have almost decided to take this step because the local police department has consistently failed to give me and other businessmen the protection we deserve," Mortorana said.

The spark that set off the hassle was the alleged burglary Monday night at Mortorana's used car lot, 7073 Mission street. Mortorana claims burglars got away with most of his electrical repair equipment, 15 to 20 tires, and the bumper off a car.

Sgt. Roy Beecher said no report had been turned in by Mortorana as of noon Wednesday, and he knew nothing of the alleged theft.

This is the fourth in a series of recent thefts, Mortorana said. The majority were carried off at night.

Police reports show that on November 16, 1951, an employee of Mortorana stole $750 from the Aero Motor Company, 6465 Mission, safe. The thief was later apprehended in Texas.

Radio Theft On December 1, 1951, four radios were taken from cars on the used car lot. Police consider this a theft, not a burglary as there was no forced entry.

Early in February Mortorana called to report another theft. Sgt. Beecher said police could find no evidence of anything having been taken, and no burglary report was made out.

Referring to the theft of the four radios, Mortorana said: "I reported it, but the police didn't show any real interest. They didn't even bother to look for fingerprints."

The Daly City businessman said the present police setup had resulted in many other burglaries here.

No summary report of the number of burglaries committed here in a year is available at the police department. However, Sgt. Beecher said the percentage for Daly City is "relatively low."

Inadequate Force Mortorana asserts the present difficulty is that the night force is inadequate. "The way things (Continued on Page 2)

Community Center

City Rejects Floor; Bldg. Fund Exhausted

The $5,000 maple floor in the main auditorium of the Community Center building, Alp and Mission streets, has been rejected as "inadequate" by the city council.

At a special meeting of the council and contractors Wednesday afternoon, the Cinnamond Co. of Oakland was refused payment for the floor.

Mario Ciampi, architect for the job, said the floor, which was installed about 45 days ago, was not up to specifications. He asserted the maple is not of the first grade eastern required; that in places the floor was not level; and that some pieces of board were shorter than the 18-inch minimum. He also charged that 43 per cent of the boards were only 18 inches long, whereas the specifications had called for a maximum of 25 per cent of short flooring.

Tear Up Floor The council then directed Ralph Larsen & Sons, main contractors, to have the floor torn up and a new floor installed. The Cinnamond Co. is a subcontractor for the job, and according to Mayor Paul Green it is up to Larsen to see that the overall work is done properly.

When the meeting broke up Larsen said he would try to work out the problem with Cinnamond.

Meanwhile, THE RECORD learned today that of the $295,000 bond issue passed by residents 2 1/2 years ago, approximately $30,000 is left. However, Mayor Green said this remaining sum has already been dedicated, and to all intents and purposes the bond issue money is gone.

In addition, the mayor said approximately $24,000 has been taken from the general fund to install the electrical equipment for the building.

Jeff High Ruling May Kill Spring Festival Parade

School Grounds Out For Annual March

Plans for the Daly City Spring Festival—one of the biggest events staged in the community during the year—struck a severe snag Monday night because of an adverse ruling by the Jefferson Union high school board.

In fact, the board's decision seems to have eliminated at one stroke the parade—one of the top features of the big day.

No Vehicles

In the past the parade has marched down Mission to the high school football field, where it terminates after marching around the track before the grandstand.

Monday night the board decided no horses or vehicles will be permitted on the football field, or on the track. Board members felt that, since the track has just been resurfaced, at considerable expense, it would not be wise to permit vehicles or horses in the area.

However, the board decided, the remainder of the festival program, including the dances, will be permitted.

Parade Out

Dan Andersen, city administrator, said today that this ruling knocks the parade out from under parade plans, since the council feels there is not much use of trying to organize the parade without the use of the grounds as a terminal.

Andersen said he would rather withhold further comment until the council receives official notice from the school board denying use of the grounds.

Elman Rose, recreation director, who is in charge of the complete program, with the exception of the parade handled by the city, said he hoped the board's ruling would not hinder his activities too much.

Discussion Set

Rose said the problem would be discussed at the meeting of the recreation commission, scheduled for next Tuesday. At that time they expect to have the official action of the school board.

If, as indicated by the board, they will allow the two-hour stage program and dancing, Rose said he felt the commission could go ahead as planned.

New Ambulance Is Set For Broadmoor

Residents of the Broadmoor police district will soon have their own free emergency ambulance service, according to Chief Paul Schmidt.

This will eliminate the necessity of relying on Daly City service, and cases in which ambulances already are out on call. The ambulance is being purchased from the fire department in Brisbane, and is said to be in good condition.

The Broadmoor police department will maintain the ambulance and furnish the drivers.

The Broadmoor reserve police force will be in charge of the Policeman's Ball March 29 in Columbus Hall, and a portion of the money collected will go towards the purchase of the ambulance.

The vehicle, in addition to its regular use for emergency cases, will be an integral part of the newly organized Broadmoor civil defense program.

Money taken in at the Policeman's Ball will also be used in assisting the Broadmoor Policeman's Boys' Club.

Youthful Burglars Are Questioned By Broadmoor Police

Admit Breaking In Three Homes Here

Three Broadmoor burglars were cleared up this week when police cracked a teen-age gang which has been operating throughout the county for the past year. Two boys, aged 15, were arrested last week by San Bruno police for auto theft when they were caught in a stolen car. Under questioning, the boys revealed they were part of a nine-man gang which has been working the peninsula.

These two, who were given the job of working the northern section of the county, admitted they had committed burglaries in the Daly City area. Brought here, they were questioned by Officer Augi Benassini, of the Daly City police department. It was brought out the burglaries actually were committed in Broadmoor, and the two were turned over to Broadmoor police chief, Paul Schmidt.

WARNING ISSUED ON HILL PARKING

Westlake residents, as all Daly City drivers today were warned to watch how they park their cars on hills.

City Ordinance 160, Sec. 30 A, states: "car wheels must be turned in to the curb properly on any grade, however slight."

Improperly parked cars often result in serious accidents, Officer Henry Sundermann said.

Sundermann says many Westlake cars have not been tagged, because police felt they were unaware of the law. However, police will not be so liberal in the future as they believe these drivers have been given adequate warning.

Edgewood Residents Call Meeting To Plug For Signals On Hillside Blvd.

A meeting to determine when and if signals and stop signs can be put up on Hillside boulevard is scheduled for Monday, March 17.

This will be the principal topic of discussion at the meeting of the Edgewood Terrace Civis association slated for 8 p. m. at Jefferson high school.

Chairman Sanford Vickers says a petition signed by 200 residents of the area is ready for submission to the necessary officials.

Petitioners have specifically called for a stop sign at Bismark and Hillside boulevard, and for another in front of Jefferson high school.

Stop Speeding

"We feel the signs will slow down motorists and cut down on drivers speeding at 50 miles per hour up Hillside boulevard," Vickers said.

He pointed out that during the past year several accidents have occurred on this street and that stop signs are definitely in order "before some child is killed or seriously injured."

Chief Roland Petrocchi has been invited to the meeting to discuss the problem with residents.

Teen-Ager Calls On Local Residents To Wake Up To Jefferson High Activities

The Record

Editor: I was very glad to see that someone had finally "sounded off" about the reaction of the people of Daly City towards the Jefferson high school plays.

(Ed Note: Last week THE RECORD ran a letter from a local resident who called on residents to lend more active support to high school affairs.)

I am a teenager, and have participated in two of the school plays. It was really quite disappointing after working on the play, "A Murder Has Been Aranged," for almost two months to see such a small audience on the performance nights.

It was also very disappointing to see such a small turnout for the play, "The Miser." Although I did not act in this, I took part.

I hope the people of Daly City "wake up" to the fun and entertainment right in their own community.

I thank THE RECORD, and Mrs. Taylor, for the fine article. Appreciatingly yours, R. Christensen 116 Bepier street are now, a thief has plenty of time to work without worrying about cops patrolling the area."

Chief Roland Petrocelli reports there are three police cars operating at night. Each of the cars has one man. Another man is on duty in the office.

While police agree more men could be used (if available), they assert the present night force is adequate for Daly City.

In conclusion, Martorana said he believes the thieves have the routes of the police cars down so they know where they will be at a certain time.

Police deny this, as the routes are changed every evening.

City Attorney Frank Blum was not available for comment today, but another attorney, who did not wish his name used, said Martorana might have a "rough time" bringing such a suit against the city.

But Martorana indicated he is prepared for "a rough time," if it means he can make the town safe for business and not a "haven for burglars."

EASTER SEAL DRIVE IS GETTING STARTED

Many San Mateo county doctors, in addition to members of the auxiliary to the County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., are busy working toward success of the Easter Seal Campaign which opened here today, March 13.

The campaign, under the honorary chairmanship of Dr. William A. Key, of San Mateo, will continue through Easter Sunday, April 13. According to Dr. Key, this will be the 12th annual drive in the county.

The doctors working on general plans for the Easter Seal Campaign are all members of the society's medical advisory board.

Andersen Praised

Following the regular business, a member of the audience thanked City Administrator Dan Andersen for his prompt work in having Frankfort street cleaned. However, he pointed out there was still some rubble on vacant lots, and asked that these be cleaned. Andersen said this would be done.

Menace

Another resident called for tearing down the fire gutted Ferrari home near Lowell and Frankfort. He said the house was a menace as many children were playing in it, and some might hurt themselves. City Attorney Frank Blum said the property was now involved in litigation, but the city will take immediate steps to have it destroyed.

Mrs. Helen Cheatham then asked Mayor Green what steps had been taken to put up a fire escape on Bellevue hall. He replied the council has taken a "preliminary look," but due to bad weather nothing has been done as yet.

Mrs. Cheatham also asked "sever" question about the Community Center. These answers will be found in another story on page 1.

Senator Knowland To Seek Reelection

United States Senator William F. Knowland officially announced his candidacy for re-election this week.

The 44 year old senior Senator from California arrived from Washington at 9:00 a.m., and left for Los Angeles on a 3:00 p.m. plane to address the Annual Junior Chamber of Commerce dinner before returning to his senate post immediately following.

In filing his Declaration of Candidacy for the June 3 primary election, Senator Knowland disclosed that he would not leave Washington for any extended periods to conduct his campaign. He said, "The many issues before congress effecting various parts of California and the state as a whole demand my time in Washington. These matters are of utmost importance and urgency to the economic welfare of our greatly expanded population. I refer particularly to the water developments for our agriculture and the proper protection and consideration for our industries, as well as to limitations on our building and construction needs without due regard for our great influx of new residents.

"As a consequence, my campaign for re-election will be conducted almost entirely by my friends in each county who have offered to take over this assignment for me.

"My campaign will be conducted clearly on the basic issues which are starkly clear to every American today. They are, honesty and integrity in government, economy in expending the taxpayer's money, the middle-headed foreign policy which is bleeding the nation white, and a return to government by the people of this nation for the people of this nation."

Senator Knowland said he hoped the legislative schedule would permit a few flying trips to California between now and the June 3 primary.

Youthful Burglars Are Questioned By Broadmoor Police

Schmidt said the boys admitted burglarizing three homes here. The homes of T. E. Cohen, 827 Stonyford drive, and Charles Schober, 831 Stonyford, were entered August 28, 1951. The home of E. W. Gnanon, 1647 Sweetwood, was entered October 4.

The county was split into sections by the gang, and the operation was carefully organized and planned. The two boys brought here were assigned this part of the county for a territory.

The youths would first check a neighborhood carefully, then pick a likely home. They would then ring the bell. If the owner was at home, they would ask some directions, and move on. If the occupants were not home, they would go around to the back of the house, smash a window, and force entry. In order to make sure they wouldn't be trapped, they ripped out the phones.

All nine members of the gang have now been rounded up, and the boys are now at Hillcrest, waiting trial. All complaints will be compiled, and the youths will be prosecuted together.

"Enforcement officers are deeply concerned over the large number of cases of juvenile delinquency there, some of them involving liquor," Reilly said.

One of the first steps in the new drive was the suspension for 15 days of a liquor license of a Redwood City tavern. Reilly said board agents found a 17-year-old girl and a minor service man drinking in the place at 711 El Camino Real. The tavern is being operated by Harold Luchinger and August Spignoli. The suspension becomes effective March 31.

TRAFFIC CHANGES SUGGESTED

Although we have made no scientific study of the problem, common sense seems to indicate a few changes in the present traffic and street conditions here are necessary.

We would suggest the following:

1. Elimination of parking during the rush hours on the west side of Mission street and San Jose avenue in a five block area bordering the business district. Traffic going south on Mission up San Jose runs for four lanes until it comes close to the top-of-the-hill. Then, thanks to parked cars, the traffic is channeled into three lanes. This has resulted in a few accidents and a great deal of confusion. Clearing the street of parked cars during the rush hours would give traffic a full four lanes.

2. Making Knowles avenue a one way east bound street from Niantic east. Traffic going towards Westlake could be channeled on another one way street parallel to Knowles and come into Knowles at Niantic. This would facilitate quicker access to the Westlake area, and would do away with the present traffic jam on Knowles, especially at the "top-of-the-hill."

We understand the state has something to say about these matters, but it certainly would help if the city would take an active interest in promoting the needed changes.

VOTE FOR THE ISSUE... NOT AGAINST THE MAN

While candidates in the local city council race have hardly left the starting gate, there is as much speculation as to will win as will be found in a good horse race. Right now, with possibly one or two exceptions, all of the candidates are in a dead heat for first place.

Although we remain non-partisan over candidates and issues, we are not bashful about plugging for two things badly needed in local politics...understanding and fairness. Too often in the past a vote for the "wrong" man has broken up life time friendships, has started senseless feuding which has resulted in nothing but incompetent city government.

It is one thing to have an honest disagreement with a candidate, but quite another to take pot shots at his personal integrity and motives in seeking office.

Looking over the present eight man field of candidates we fail to find one whom we would not welcome as a friend. On the other hand, we may be miles apart when it comes to basic issues. But as a voter, we cast a ballot for what a man stands for, not for what another candidate lacks in personal attributes.

This, then, is why THE RECORD seriously attempts to give each aspiring councilman an equal opportunity to express his views...why we hold to a policy of selecting no single candidate. Were we convinced any of the candidates was lacking the fibre necessary for public office we would say so in language understandable to anyone.

Many voters ask: "Is it not the job of the paper to lead and direct, especially where little is known of a candidate's qualifications?" The answer is "yes" and "no." Yes, but only when the political race is farther removed from the average voter; as for example in county, state or national campaigns. No, in a city election where the issues should be evident to every homeowner; as those issues directly effect his way of life.

It is to be hoped that through the pages of THE RECORD over the past two years voters have learned enough about their city to know for whom to vote. It should be evident to any reader where improvement is needed.

And where there is any question, we advise them to read carefully the statements of the candidates on this same page.

In conclusion, we repeat, vote for an issue... do not vote negatively against an individual.

JEFFERSON HIGH NEEDS SUPPORT

It is the contention of at least one resident and a student that the public is derelict in its support of Jefferson High school activities. We are inclined to go along with this view.

Over the past year the attendance at the major Jefferson high student events has been far from overwhelming. It isn't because these affairs have been boring or bad, but rather that the public takes no interest in its teen-agers.

Despite this apparent lack of interest, residents are quick to find fault with the younger set. Such generalizations as "juvenile delinquency" and "irresponsibility" are fast becoming associated with younger folks. They are convenient tags, applied liberally to give oldsters a smug feeling of wisdom and complacency. It is this group that most deplors juvenile delinquency and fails to support counteracting measures such as offered by events at Jefferson high school.

Lecturing, however, is not going to bring out larger crowds. Fundamentally the reason for poor attendance is that the students have failed to sell themselves. They have something to offer—which is usually far, far above the type of entertainment millions view on TV—and they should not be ashamed to advertise the fact.

We suggest the Jefferson high school student body become more public relations conscious. Broadcast the fact that an event is scheduled. Tell the public about it with bigger and better signs, news stories and even outright advertising. Sell the other members of the student body...sell the public at large.

This appears to be the only real solution, for it is a certainty that moans, no matter how justified, never packed a house.

CIVILIAN DEFENSE WANTS HOUSECLEANING

During the past year we have been beating the drums for an adequate local civilian defense set-up. Why that drum has been muffled was explained in part at a recent meeting of the joint cities-county civilian defense organization.

As so neatly put by Dr. Harold Chope, county health director, the city and county civilian defense effort is stymied by "confusion at the top and apathy at the bottom."

The top level confusion would be evident to anyone who had attended the aforesaid meeting. County civilian defense heads appear to be loaded down with directives, but sadly neglecting in the "know how" and cash to put them into effect. When questions arose at the meeting they were met by paragraph and sentence number in a 200 page directive. Few, if any, direct, concrete answers were given.

We had the feeling when we left the meeting, that just about nothing had been accomplished. A few men had wasted some precious time earnestly trying to prepare the county for an enemy alert. The possible exception was the setting of another practice air-raid alert. But this could have been done in a matter of minutes, not hours.

However, we will take our hat off to Supervisor Ed McDonald, chairman of the cities-county organization. He struck us as a man who knows what he wants and does not hesitate to say so. However, even he can not fight a paper bag full of wordy directives.

It appears to us that on a county level the civilian defense effort needs more men like McDonald, Dr. Chope and a few of the more outspoken city managers and officials. The last thing needed is additional copies of papers on how to act.

This isn't to blame only the county. More at fault is the state and the federal government. While funds have been pledged for civilian defense on both levels, they have been employed for only one visible purpose...to supply fat jobs to a selected few, and to pay for reams of printed matter.

If the city, county and state civilian defense effort is ever to function, someone should pull the switch on the printing press and apply the axe to useless officialdom.

Getting down to the local level, Daly City is as much to blame as the county and state. Apathy is a mild word to sum up the effort here. Downright criminal negligence and inefficiency would be better descriptive terms.

Today, not one resident in a thousand even knows what civilian defense means on a local level. In the last test air-raid alert this city was no better prepared than a duck in a shooting gallery.

We would suggest the city stop passing the buck and get down to action. Maybe our example will not only eventually save lives; but inspire the county and state levels to move out of the realm of make believe into the world of action.

Council Candidates Speak

Following are statements by the eight candidates seeking two seats on the city council April 8. THE RECORD takes an impartial stand on this particular political question and endeavors to bring the readers a fair summary of the candidates' platforms. However, after this week the candidates will be asked to limit their statements (with headlines) to no more than 10 inches. This is necessary to conserve space for other vital stories of interest to the public. Two candidates, running as a team, will be considered as one for the purpose of the aforesaid statements. Press deadline for the previously mentioned candidates' statements is Tuesday noon of the week of publication.

Mooney-Verducci Thank Public For Support

Mooney Counts Much Accomplished

Thanking the large group of local residents who have rallied to the support of their candidacy, Councilman Ed Mooney and his running mate, Joe Verducci, today expressed their appreciation for those who have pledged their vote for the Mooney-Verducci ticket this week.

It was during incumbent Mooney's term of office that a long list of civic improvements were accomplished, including the most extensive program of traffic signals in the history of the city, annexations of new area, a complete recreation program, new street lights, etc.

Verducci A Leader

Probably the best qualified man in the entire city on the subject of recreation, due to years of experience as athletic director at bay region colleges, Joe Verducci said he and Mooney would arrange to organize and coordinate the program so that there will be an all-inclusive program for all age groups, with adequate recreation facilities in all districts of the city.

The father of three children, Verducci, a resident of Westlake, was born in Daly City and comes from a pioneer local family. He is well-known throughout the state as a former University of California football great and as athletic director at St. Mary's college and S. F. State college.

Best Qualified

"One has only to count up the accomplishments and improvements during Ed Mooney's term of office during the past four years to realize that he is sincere in his outlook and a Councilman who lives up to his campaign statements. Joe Verducci is entirely in accord with Mooney's ideas and his administrative experience should also make him a good Councilman. There is no doubt that Mooney and Verducci are the best qualified candidates in the field. It takes good men to accomplish a good program."

Tromborg-Wilson Program Dedicated To Building City

Call For More Needed Improvements

Dedicated to making Daly City the finest family community in the Bay Area, Thomas Tromborg and Del Wilson today outlined further improvements they will initiate when elected to the city council.

In addition to the 10 point constructive program already offered, the two Daly City businessmen will work for:

1. Adequate bus shelters for commuters now forced to stand in the rain and wind waiting for a bus.
2. An immediate check of the signal system at the "top of the hill," to adjust the long waiting period for pedestrians and cars.
3. Flood light and a public address system for Marchbanks park to facilitate sports events and other affairs.

4. A check to determine whether more policemen are needed for adequate patrolling of Daly City, especially in the Westlake area.

5. Development of Thornton Beach—a 22 acre site bordering the ocean within the bounds of Daly City. They believe the major part of the expense for this job should be born by the county.

"While relatively minor matters, these improvements are of great importance to every home owner in Daly City," Tromborg said. "I am amazed that it is even necessary to bring them up—the present council should have taken action long ago."

Major points of the Tromborg-Wilson program for continuity betterment include: a privately operated bus system; development of recreation facilities; a close check on taxes; additional signals and stop signs; a commission form of government; off street parking; an expanded fire department; closer cooperation with the schools; immediate street repair, and an end to private caucus meetings.

DeBernardi Says Council Operating Under One Man

Offers Constructive Community Program

Mickey DeBernardi, candidate for the city council, today charged the present administration is operating as a one-man council.

Backing up his charge with proof, DeBernardi asserted that in the past two years of "one man rule" there has not been more than six "no" votes cast on hundreds of propositions. Debate among the five councilmen is almost unheard of, DeBernardi said.

He says the root of the trouble is the "package deal" form of voting, where residents are asked to vote for two or three men on one ticket...not as individuals. This assures "harmony" on every issue.

DeBernardi says there should be an end to this type of rule, and therefore, he has chosen to run alone so that he may individually offer fair, progressive and impartial government.

If elected to office, DeBernardi promises to fight for the following program:

SCHOOLING—The council should have one member attend every school board meeting. This would assure closer cooperation between the city and school and alleviate a problem which results in school rooms built for 25 children being crowded by 45 to 50 children.

RECREATION—Due to lack of cooperation between the council and recreation commission, the $101,000 parks program of two years ago is still not completed. We need a councilman at every commission meeting to put an end to the council pigeon holing every recommendation of the commission. A good recreation program does not have to be expensive, if kept under close surveillance.

COMMUNITY CENTER—This must be finished. All the money from the original $295,000 bond issue is gone; but an investigation should be made to find out just where it went and to whom.

PARKING FACILITIES—Off street parking is needed, as well as increasing the parking meter time from one hour to two hours.

POLICE AND FIRE—Our central police and fire stations should be augmented by a district station in Westlake. This would add to our protection and lower insurance rates.

"These are but five points of my program, DeBernardi said. "In future issues I shall endeavor to further explain these issues, and also include a few more."

Wheeler Deplores 260% Jump In Cost Of City Government

Says Council Runs City Uneconomically

Since my opening statement last week on my candidacy for the position of City Council, many voters have contacted me and inquired as to whether the city business is conducted on a businesslike basis.

To those of you who know what's going on in the City Hall, my answer will not come as a shock.

To those of you that are not familiar with the present unbusinesslike and incompetent manner in which your city is managed by your elected representatives, the following facts may prove enlightening.

Let's check direct with their own figures for each fiscal year over the past ten years so you can make adequate comparison. These figures represent their own budget as presented by the Mayor and approved by the City Council and does not include the 1949 bond issue of $396,000,000.

1942-42	$164,000
1943-44	163,000
1944-45	158,000
1946-46	184,000
1946-47	308,000
1947-48	320,000
1948-49	350,000
1949-50	445,000
1950-51	517,000
1951-52	573,000

Percentage wise, this shows an increase of approximately 260% in six years or an increase of $415,000 per year in the cost of government during this same six years.

Again, this does not include the bond issues the people voted. Ask yourself—is this businesslike management? Are these present councilmen, on their own record, competent to manage your city affairs?

As a past member of the Recreation Commission I am in a position to judge the lack of results from the $101,000 bond issue for parks and playgrounds. That money has all been spent—the fund is in the red and what has been accomplished?

Are you satisfied with the manner in which the $296,000 War Memorial Bond Fund was spent? This fund is also in the red and what has been accomplished except the shell of a building that can't be used.

I am sincere in my belief that if elected, I shall be in a position to have a businesslike administration of your city affairs and accomplish the many desirous changes to effect an efficiently managed city government.

—George F. Wheeler

"Do Nothing" Council Charged By Dennis & Gross

Claim Council Wasted Taxpayer's Money

Edward J. Dennis and Henry Gross, candidates for election to the Daly City Council on April 8, made the following comment today on their platform, "For Efficient Government."

"It is very interesting to read that the incumbent and his innocent running mate are now in favor of better transportation, recreational development, continued city progress, economical government, efficient service and planned progress."

"We say, as the voters will say on April 8th, 'What has happened for the past four years when the incumbent was in a position to do something?' Also they suggest to widen Knowles Avenue to make it convenient to get to the top of the hill."

"What is interesting is that the incumbent acted to cut a street through solid rock for an extension of Brunswick Street to connect Hillside Boulevard, costing approximately sixty thousand dollars of precious gas tax money allocated to Daly City."

"This money could have been used very usefully for widening Knowles Avenue, thus combining our city from east to west by a safe thoroughfare. Also this money could be diverted to repair many streets of major importance in our city, which we all know is badly needed at this time."

"Any citizen familiar with this foolish expense of valuable funds will frankly say, 'Who gets the benefit out of this unneeded street?' At the present time work has been suspended on the cutting through the rock, due to a court injunction."

"We, Dennis and Gross, say that the Community Center building must be completed. Yes, the incumbent had four years to complete this building, as the majority of the property of the present site was purchased by the previous council before he took office in 1948."

"As our councilmen we will insist that itemized estimates for the lowest bids be computed immediately, to arrive at a total cost of completion. Thus the taxpayer will get an honest report as to money needed to complete this important but now expensive building."

"The idea of borrowing money from a private Los Angeles loan company is ridiculous and we will have no part of it. We, Dennis and Gross, declare it is time to get down to serious business and stop these errors and consider the taxpayer."

From A Corner

By Bill Katz

What is the nightmare of every man's existence?

The answer is simply Time. Men are weighed down, every moment, by the conception and sensation of Time. This is especially true on the threshold of middle age when, for the first time, man comes to realize the years ahead are numbered. Youth rarely considers this aspect of life for the very reason that youth seems unlimited.

Conversing with a good friend of our the other evening, who is considerably older than ourselves, we asked his solution to the nightmare. For him, and probably all men, there is but forgetting and escaping Time: pleasure and work. Note, we say "forget" and "escape," for to dwell on the subject of Time too long is to invite insanity or suicide.

Tragedy

Time appears to be the fundamental tragedy of man's life. He has so little of it, he wastes so much of it, what he retains as his own he does not know what to do with.

The perfect balance for beating Time would appear to be pleasure and work; but in our civilization it is rapidly becoming all work and a negative sort of pleasure. Given a few hours of free Time, man is lost. He usually resorts to the simple way out...sleeping or drinking, and now, passive television viewing. This may be pleasure, but we suspect it is counterfeits.

A man's family, growing children, is another means of defeating Time. And yet, this too, is falacious. What thinking man is there who has not viewed his children as simply his story all over again...wasted youth, a mad rush to gain money to marry, to raise more children, so that they may repeat the insane process.

View

An even more alarming view of Time is obtained when one considers himself, his size, his place in the world the overall universe. He is nothing. He is less than the grain of sand blown in the wind. His ancestors have gone, as he too will come and pass not even important enough to have been forgotten.

How do you beat the system? Work and pleasure, says our friend. But it takes more than that for work is vanity and pleasure is consuming.

Some would say the spiritual life, others prefer the stoic philosophy...make the best of every day, without thought to either pleasure, or work, or Time.

Frankly, we do not know the answer, the way out of the nightmare. We fancy we are not alone. There appears to be but one final answer; but we are not ready to die.

NEW COUNTY CHEST EXECUTIVE NAMED

Glen O. Smallcomb, President of the Community Chest of San Mateo county announced today the appointment of Roswell J. Caulk, as Executive Secretary effective immediately. Caulk replaces Vearl H. Volgamore, who resigned recently to reenter the education field in California.

Caulk comes from Seattle, Washington, where he has been a member of the Executive Staff of the Seattle Community Chest for the past five years. Prior to that he was associated with the Community Chest and Council of Social Agencies in Columbus, Ohio, and is a former Superintendent of Parks and Recreation in Stubeville, Ohio.

Sutro Heights, in San Francisco, once a renowned fashionable gathering place, is now a public park.

Vet Affairs POW Compensation Deadline March 31

Former World War II prisoners of war have until March 31 to request compensation from the U. S. War Claims Commission for the time they were held by the enemy—and the filing deadline probably will not be extended again, it was pointed out today by Floyd D. Granger, Veterans Service Officer of San Mateo county.

Reports from the War Claims Commission reveal that a number of former prisoners of war and civilian internees, or their survivors, haven't yet filed for compensation, although the second extension of the filing period is about to expire, Granger said. The Commission does not expect Congress to extend the final filing date again, he added.

Most of the eligible claimants who have not filed are survivors—widows, children or parents of servicemen who were held as prisoners of the axis powers in World War II. Payment is made at the rate of $1 a day for each day they were in enemy hands. Surviving parents do not have to show dependency to receive the POW payment, and widows are qualified even if they remarry, Granger explained.

The War Claims Act applies only to World War II prisoners and does not cover U. S. prisoners of war in the Korean conflict, he cautioned.

So far, more than 10,000 claims from California residents have been paid by the Commission, at an average payment of $1098 to living ex-prisoners of the Pacific theater and $277 to living ex-prisoners of the European theater, Granger said.

He urged World War II prisoners of war or their survivors who have not applied for POW compensation to do so at the Veterans Service Office, Courthouse, Redwood City, before the filing period expires March 31.

Lewkowitz Says "Crying Shame" Merchants Don't Have Association

Editor:
Why is it the merchants of Daly City have a positive conviction that they can't get together?

It's a crying shame everyone claims to be an individual surrounded by his four walls of his store, afraid to help himself and work together with his competitor to keep business in Daly City.

We read about the Excelsior merchants' dollar days, Mission merchants' dollar days, Geary merchants' sales days, and other district associations always creating some stir in the area to help business. But not Daly City and Colma merchants. They act like the old jackass, roaming the desert from one clump of woods to another, as long as he's got enough to keep him moving.

Merchants, WAKE UP. Let's get together and wipe out old jealousies and be merchants. Keep our business in our own district.

Joe Lewkowitz

KEEP TO THE RIGHT

The annoyance, and danger, of having a car pass you on the right without giving a warning can best be avoided by always driving as close as possible to the curb, except when overtaking another car, points out the National Automobile Club. If the return to the curb is made as soon as advisable after overtaking the other car there is no likelihood of anything getting a chance to sandwich in between your car and the curb.

Hear tell Jackie and Dickie Crofton are two of the latest victims of the chicken pox bug. Don't scratch, boys.

87th

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Golladay and daughters, Nancy and Barbara, have just returned from a trip to Ensenada, Mexico. They had a wonderful time, even though they only had a week's vacation.

My sympathies were certainly with the two women who had to explain to their husbands Tuesday night about the accident in which they were involved at the corner of 87th and Nimitz. We certainly hope the woman taken to the hospital was not seriously hurt.

Nimitz

Mrs. Dale Stookey celebrated her birthday Thursday by lunching at a Peninsula restaurant. The other guests at the luncheon were Mrs. Jack Kuhn, Mrs. Jack Cowden and Mrs. Jack Pilcher.

Here and There

The PTA fashion tea last Saturday was a huge success. The beautiful clothes and wonderful models won everyone's acclaim. The youngest models, as usual, stole the show.

Rev. John Glasse presided over the meeting of Presbytery held Tuesday at the Lakeside Presbyterian Church, of which Dr. Rogers is pastor.

The Women's Association is going full steam ahead on last minute preparations for their Bake Sale to be held Saturday at the Western Auto Store.

Thomas Callan, candidate for supervisor from the First District, today reminded all veterans they may now claim county property tax exemptions.

He noted the period for claiming the exemptions is from now to the last Monday in May, but that veterans are asked to take immediate action. "In order to expedite the filing, the County Assessor's office will be open Saturday morning, March 15," Callan said.

"This Saturday opening is especially convenient for veterans in the north of the county who can only get to Redwood City on a Saturday," Callan added.

Veterans who have filed in this county before, have only to mail their claim for exemption to the County Assessor's office.

Callan, who is a leading county businessman, said he would be happy to help any veteran in this matter. He may be reached at 2790 Junipero Serra boulevard, phone PLaza 5-6464.

Catholic Churches To Participate In Relief Fund Drive

The Catholic churches of Daly City will participate in the annual nationwide Bishops' Relief Fund for War Victims campaign. The goal of the national appeal is $5,000,000. Since the start of the Catholic Bishops' Emergency Relief program in 1943, approximately $170,000,000 worth of foodstuffs, clothing and medicine has been distributed through overseas relief agencies in some sixty-three different countries.

The 1952 appeal has two phases, according to the Rev. Leonard W. Bose, of St. Catherine's Church, Burlingame, San Mateo County Director of the Bishop's Fund; the school children's Lenten collection, and contributions from adults during the week of March 16 to 23, when a special appeal will be made at all Masses.

"Countless millions in Korea, Europe and Asia still depend upon the charity of others for their very lives. Besides the millions of those rendered homeless and dispossessed by the present Korean conflict, many refugees from Communist oppression are fleeing into Germany, Austria, Trieste, Hong Kong, and other havens of safety. Some 15,000 refugees flock into Western Germany each month, joining the 1,500,000 who have already escaped from the Soviet Zone. Over 5,000,000 have been forced to flee from Red China into Hong Kong and Formosa during the past year," reports Father Bose.

Funds from the campaign are used to finance the world-wide programs of the two overseas relief agencies of the American Catholic Hierarchy, the Bishops' Emergency Relief Committee, and War Relief Services—National Catholic Welfare Conference. Need is the sole criterion of distribution, regardless of race, creed or color. Donations may be made to the Bishops' Relief Fund through any Catholic church.

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them that are called according to His purpose."—Romans 8:28.

Many homes have this or some similar motto on the wall—"God Bless Our Home"—but how many homes have the actual indwelling presence of Jesus Christ because the inmates have opened their hearts to Him?

An account is given of a wealthy man who purchased at high cost a famous painting of Jesus. He sought, with difficulty, an appropriate place for it on the walls of his home. At last he called in an architect who, after examining the house and the picture, said, "Man, you cannot fit this picture into your home. You must make a home to fit it."

Just as surely we must so order our home life that it would be appropriate to invite Jesus to abide therein.

RESPECT THE PEDESTRIAN

Stepping your car within the crosswalk is as discourteous as it is dangerous, says the California State Automobile Association. Besides, it's against the law in most places. Remember when you force pedestrians to walk around your car, you're asking them to step into the danger zone. Be a courteous driver.

Essay On Lincoln By Colma Student Wins Noted Plaque For His School

(Ed. Note: This is the second Colma School student to be printed in THE RECORD. The remaining two will be printed during the next two weeks.)

Lane Calvin, seventh grade student at Colma School, has won the famed Lincoln Plaque for his school with his essay on Abraham Lincoln. Following is his winning composition:

"Today we hear about schools being overcrowded. If you look back to the time of Lincoln, you will see how a boy became a great man by his own efforts. The advice given to Abraham Lincoln by his dying mother was, 'Be something, Abe.' With only one year of schooling and his mother's advice, he was eager to learn. Every one considered Abe peculiar because he loved to read and study. Books were scarce and he borrowed every one in the community and read them over many times.

Good Wrestler

"Abe Lincoln not only studied but like sports, too. He was the best runner, jumper and wrestler in the neighborhood. He was exceptionally strong, and known as the best worker in all the country around. People like to have him come to their homes, for he was full of fun, jokes, and stories, and was never rough, quarrelsome or cruel. Abe Lincoln never drank liquor, and some people say that he had no bad habits.

"The stone walls of the White House no more shut Lincoln in from his fellows, and from their hopes and sorrows than did the unwhim logs behind which he shivered in the cabin home of his youth. One night he dreamed that he was in a crowd, when someone recognized him as the president and exclaimed in surprise, 'He is a very common looking man.' Whereupon he answered, 'Friend, the Lord prefers common-looking people. That is the reason he makes so many of them.'

"Lincoln liked people, and he always kept in touch with the masses. He did not have to take the word of politicians or newspapers about what the country was, thinking. He went to the source. In truth, he needed only to look within himself to find a mirror of the popular mind.

His Belief

"Lincoln believed that all men were given equal right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Lincoln is one of the great men of all times; many people consider him the greatest of all our presidents. It has been said that 'never has the world seen a greater example of wisdom, patience, patriotism and moral courage than shown by Lincoln's every act.' He has been honored by mankind as the Great Emancipator."

Judge Bocci Says Visit The Library

Judge Thomas Bocci today invited all residents to visit their local library in observance of California Library Week.

Long an advocate of building and stocking bigger and better community libraries, Judge Bocci noted this week, March 10 to 16, is an especially appropriate time to become acquainted with your library.

"It is surprising how many people do not realize they have a wonderful library in their city," Judge Bocci said. "As you and your neighbor are paying taxes for this service, take advantage of it."

Judge Bocci concluded that in these days of conflicting ideologies, it is imperative to understand the vital forces in the spiritual and social implications of democracy. He said no better key to this knowledge was available than in the public library... an institution dedicated to the enlightenment of the people.

Coast Highway Will Shortly Be Rebuilt

REDWOOD CITY — A $71,000 reconstruction program designed to put the Coast highway back into service by May 15 will be launched, immediately by the state division of highways, it has been announced by Assistant State Highway Engineer J. H. Skeggs.

"The Happy Time" Slated For Geary Opening March 24

"The Happy Time," starring Reginald Gardiner, Frances Dee, Maria Palmer and Lloyd Corrigan, comes to the Geary Theatre, San Francisco, on Monday, March 24. There will be matinees Wednesday and Saturday. This is the National Company presented by Lewis and Young.

A rollicking comedy which played 650 times in New York, "The Happy Time" is Samuel Taylor's dramatization of Robert Fontaine's gay novel of the same name. It was first presented on Broadway during the 1950 season and named one of the Ten Best Plays of the Year. It was recently presented in London, where it was acclaimed one of the comedy hits of the season.

"The Happy Time" tells the fascinating story of a carefree French-Canadian family. The Bonnards are a charming and heart-warming lot. All French but Mama, who is a Scotch-Presbyterian intruder, this delightful family takes all of its problems with a sense of living and humor that is rare in modern life. How "the facts of life" are explained to Bibi, the adolescent, makes this an unforgettable comedy of the awakening of young love.

Featured in this happy comedy are Warren Berlinger, Joe E. Marks, Francis Bethencourt, Oliver Cliff, Ruth Lee and Patricia Wright. The settings and costumes are by Aline Bernstein. "The Happy Time" was directed by George Somnes.

The New York critics were lavish in their praise of "The Happy Time." Brooks Atkinson, of The New York Times, called it "tender, gallant and funny." John Chapman, of the New York News, said it "brings yells of laughter." Walter Winchell called it "a big, warm-hearted, funny hit."

The men and women in our Army and Air Force are the best fed in the world.

New Folk Dancing Class Is Planned

The Daly City Recreation Department has announced it will sponsor a new beginners class in Folk Dancing starting March 26, at Castle Hall, 7339 Mission street and every Wednesday thereafter, starting at 8:30 p.m.

It is advisable that those interested plan to be there the first night, as the teaching is intensive and beginners find it a bit difficult if they start too late.

The class will be conducted by Muriel Pabst, popular local teacher who is ably qualified to give the ethnic background of the dances besides teaching authentic folk dances. Mrs. Pabst, who is the teacher of the Calico Clickers, says if you can walk you can folk dance. She also recommends that the new-comers wear low heeled shoes and comfortable clothes.

All those interested in learning how to folk dance or in brushing up on it, may contact Muriel Pabst at Delaware 3-8567 for further information, or just be at Castle Hall next Wednesday evening.

Summer Classes At Jefferson High

In addition to upsetting the plans for the annual Spring Festival parade, the Jefferson Union high school board Monday night handled other routine items of business.

The board advertised for bids on a switchboard for the pump house, and for a new switchboard for the stage.

It was voted to hold summer classes during the vacation period. The classes to be held will be decided upon by the number of requests from students.

Classes will be scheduled two hours a day, five days a week, for eight weeks, during morning hours. Regular credit will be received.

S. F. Civil Defense training courses are given in cooperation with the Adult Education Department.

Benefit Ball For Crippled Children Slated

Bay Meadows Scene Of Fun Raising Dance

More than 5,000 tickets have already been sold for the "Crippled Children's Benefit Ball" and Easter Fashion Preview which will be presented by organized labor of San Mateo county this Saturday night, March 15, at the Bay Meadows Clubhouse.

Michael B. O'Connor, general chairman for the event, announced that the full quota of 10,000 ticket sales will probably be reached by the end of the week. The ball, which is the first such undertaking of organized labor of this county, is expected to be the biggest ever given here.

According to O'Connor, Governor Earl Warren has been invited to attend and many civic and business leaders will be present also.

On behalf of the San Mateo County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., which group will receive the entire gross proceeds of the ball, Adalene Ross, well-known Bay Area fashion commentator and member of the benefit society, will start the festivities at 8 o'clock by welcoming the huge crowd. She will then introduce Paul Speegle, KNBC program manager and popular commentator, who will describe the styles in the Easter fashion show. Fourteen members of the Auxiliary to the Stanford Convalescent Home will model the fashions from the San Mateo City of Paris.

Ray Hackett, whose band will provide the music for the dance immediately following the fashion show, will direct a string ensemble for the 8 o'clock feature.

For those who are unable to obtain tickets, some will be available at the Clubhouse entrance the night of the ball.

Many skills of many people go into the big job of providing telephone service in the West today.

FIVE BILLION CONVERSATIONS

This huge number of telephone calls a year is the important responsibility of 73,000 men and women in the West.

Five billion conversations! By day and night, in cities and towns, across valleys and over mountains, the West's telephone lines are busy carrying the calls that in a year total more than twice the population of the earth! Some calls are routine, others may save a life, but each call is vital to capable telephone people everywhere as they work at the wide variety of telephone jobs needed to serve you and the nation well.

Your telephone is one of today's best bargains

For every telephone employee, we have about $20,000 invested in telephone equipment. Naturally, both must work together to bring you good telephone service. And it's reassuring to know that despite our sharply-increased costs of both wages and materials, we've been able to keep your telephone one of today's best bargains.

This telephone team, for instance, is pinpointing the location of a buried cable which needs repairs. The cable will be fixed quickly... and calls will flow again. Meanwhile, your long distance calls are re-routed to get them through with little or no delay. This is just part of the complex job of maintaining and expanding the West's vast telephone system—a job which now requires the skills of some 27,000 well-trained telephone men and 46,000 alert telephone women here in the West. 'Round the clock, they're on the job to keep America's telephone system the finest in the world... able to do its full share of the important task of keeping America strong.

GOP Shows United Front In County Political Hassel

A solid-four-candidate slate was offered to the county's voters this week by the Republican fact-finding committee at the conclusion of nine weeks of intensive screening by the 312-member, county-wide group.

The four GOP'ers to whom the powerful citizen's committee will give its active support in June primary elections, include:

J. Arthur Younger, mature San Mateo businessman, for Congress from the county's new Ninth District.

Harry L. Parkman, of Woodside, senior member of the state legislature's upper house, who will bid for his sixth consecutive term as San Mateo county's state senator.

Daniel J. Creedon, popular 37-year-old San Mateo justice of the peace, for the 25th or northern county state assembly post.

Richard J. Dolwig, now a San Carlos resident, who is seeking his four consecutive assembly seat, this year from the 26th (south county) district.

All except Younger were near unanimous fact-finder choices for their respective posts. Younger, executive vice-President of a San Francisco savings and loan association, defeated nine other aspirants for the nomination; while withdrawals of other rivals permitted Parkman, Creedon and Dolwig to reach the final ballot stage unopposed.

Also decisively spiked this week were persistent rumors that the county Republican central committee was divided in its support of this slate, allegedly over Younger's successful candidacy. At a meeting following the final fact-finder session, central committee members pledged individually to give all four men their complete support.

The rumor was believed to have originated from the fact central committee members—while also serving on the broad fact-finder roster—had divided their personal support between as many as five Congressional rivals.

Next step, according to central committee chairman Colonel E. L. Richardson, will be to activate a unified GOP finance committee under the leadership of Claus Spreckels of Menlo Park, plus the basic Republican "get out the vote" organization in each city and town.

Individual candidates also are expected to form specific support groups of their own throughout the county.
